Title of Article: Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC) as a Strategy for Managing Nigerian External Reserves for Sustainable Development

Author(s): Faboyede, O, Chinonye Okafor and Onochie, M. P.

Outlet: International Organization of Science Research. Vol.:1 Issue 2 Date of Publication: 2013

Abstract: This paper examined how good governance allows a responsible economic and financial management of a nation’s public and natural resources for the purpose of growth and development. The paper discovered that the mechanisms of Economic and Financial Crimes Commission, Independent and Corrupt Practices Commission (ICPC) and due Process have been very instrumental in enforcing responsible economic and financial management of Nigerian external reserve for sustainable development.