Title of Article: Nigerian Culture and Citizenship Education, Lagos

Author(s): O. Y. Oyeneye, O. O. Oyesiku, P. A. Edewor; (eds.)

Outlet: Maokus Publishers

Date: 1993

Abstract: This is a book of readings on Nigerian culture and citizenship education. The book which has 210 pages is divided into two parts. The first which is on Nigerian culture covers the concept of culture, marriage and family, human settlement, traditional religion, African beliefs, traditional economic systems and indigenous associations. The second part is on citizenship education and it covers citizenship and constituted authority, Nigerian governmental systems, constitutions, federalism, rights and obligations, national ethic and discipline, national identity as well as the Nigerian environment.