MAC 422: DRAMA DOCUMENTARY / FILM PRODUCTION
Contributor: DR ARIRIGUZOH

Explain the following terms:

1. Stock Characters: These are minor characters with predictable actions that are typical of their profession. E.g. a doctor, bartender, nurse etc. The drama demands their presence.

2. Stereotypical Character: They fit into preconceived patterns of behaviour common or representative of a number of people. E.g. the sugar-daddy, the rich playboy, the bitter wife.

3. Static character: This character remains the same throughout the film. The film action does not affect him or he remains insensitive to any action in the film. E.g: A baby, mad man, a corpse.

4. Dynamic Character: He can become saddened, happier etc from gaining a new awareness of life during the story. He is affected by the actions in the story.

5. Flat Character: He is a predictable, noncomplex character. They lack psychological depths and are non-unique.

6. Round Character: Is a unique, individualistic but complex character. The audience may not be able to predict his next action.

7. What is a camera shot? This is the picture framed by the lens of the camera to include or exclude some details of the action.

8. What is a work of art? This is the deliberate action of a director to produce a movie by employing the elements of the production in an artistic manner.

9. The film is an artefact means that a movie shows what has happened in time past. The movie is a document of history.

10. What is the work of an editor? He removes what is not wanted from what is recorded during shootings.
