of the total membership of the Senate for being and

(c) received the assent of the Chief Executive Officer of the University.

(3) A proposed statute which provides for the establishment of a new college or for the amendment or revocation of any statute where a college is established may originate only in the Senate and must be approved as required by subsection (2) of this section by the senate before being so approved by the Board.

(4) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, a proposed statute may originate either in the Senate or in the Board, and may be approved as required by subsection (2) of this section by either one of those bodies before the other.

(5) A statute may be proved in any court by the production of a copy bearing or having affixed to it a certificate purporting to be signed and certified by Vice-Chancellor, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor or the Registrar to the effect that the copy is a true copy of a statute of the University.

Ordinances

25 (1) Subject to the provision of this Law and of the Statutes, the Board, either acting in accordance with the recommendation of, or after consultation with, the Senate, may from time to time make Ordinances for the purpose of:

(a) further prescribing or regulating any matters prescribed or regulated by Statutes where the Statutes require that such matters shall be further prescribed or regulated by Ordinance;
(b) exercising or prescribing the manner of exercising, any function conferred or imposed upon the Board by this Law, except where expressly or by necessary implication the context does not so permit.

(c) prescribing or regulating any matters which though relating to the academic affairs of the University are agreed by both the Board and the Senate to have such financial implications as would make them appropriate subjects for provision by Ordinance;

(d) prescribing or regulating any other matter which may be authorized or required by this Law to be prescribed or regulated by Ordinance.

(2) Ordinances may add to, amend, or revoke the Ordinances from time to time in force.

(3) Every Ordinance shall take effect as from the day on which it is made by resolution of the Board or from such other date as may be specified in the Law.

Regulations 26

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Statutes and Ordinances, the Senate may from time to time make Regulations for the purpose of exercising any function conferred or imposed upon the Senate by this Law, or prescribing or regulating any matter which may be authorized or required by this Law to be prescribed or regulated by Regulation.

(2) Regulations may add to, amend or revoke the Regulations from time to time in force.

(3) Regulations shall take effect as from the day on which they are made by the Senate or from such other date as may be specified in the Regulations.
Conflict of Provisions 27 In the event of:

(a) any Statute being inconsistent with the provisions of this or any other Law; or

(b) any Ordinance being inconsistent with the provisions of this or any other Law or any Statute; or

(c) any Regulation being inconsistent with the provisions of this or any other Law or any Statute or Ordinance, then in respect of paragraph (a), the provisions of the Law; in respect of paragraph (b), the provisions of the Law or the Statute; and in respect of paragraph (c), the provisions of the Law, the Statute or the Ordinance, as the case may be, shall prevail and such Statute, Ordinance or Regulation as mentioned respectively in those paragraphs, shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

PART V

RESIDENCE AND DISCIPLINE

General powers of the Board in relation to discipline and order 28 Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations, the Board shall have power to deal with all matters relating to the maintenance of discipline and order in the University in such manner as the Board may deem appropriate and whether or not such matters are referred to the Board by the Vice-Chancellor.

Removal of Officers and staff 29 (1) The Board may remove from office The Vice-Chancellor, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, any other Officer of the University, any member of the academic staff or any member of the administrative staff, subject to any such provisions as may be made by Statutes or Ordinances in that behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, any members of the academic staff or any member of the administrative staff;

(a) who is appointed after or allowed to continue in employment beyond any retiring age prescribed by the Board, or

(b) whose employment is temporary, part-time or probationary; or

(c) whose appointment is not intended to continue until retiring age, may be removed from office in accordance with the terms of his contract of service or in exercise of powers of disciplinary control conferred in that behalf in or by virtue of this Law.

(3) Any other staff may be removed from office in accordance with the terms of his contract of service or in exercise of powers of disciplinary control conferred in that behalf in or by virtue of this Law.

Functions of Vice-Chancellor

30 The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such functions as may be conferred or imposed upon him by this Law, the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Law, oversee the general welfare of students in the University in such a manner as the Vice-Chancellor may deem appropriate.
Subject to the provisions of this section, where it appears to the Vice-Chancellor, after due investigation, that any student of the University has been, guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may, subject to the approval of the Chancellor and without prejudice to the exercise of any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by this Statutes, or Regulations, direct; that the student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the University, or make use of such facilities of the University, as may be so specified; or

(a) that the activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified, or

(b) that the student be rusticated for such period as may be specified in the direction; or

(c) that the student be expelled from the University.

Where a direction is given under paragraph (c) or (d) of sub-section (1) of this section, the student concerned may appeal against the direction to the Board which may, after causing such inquiry to be made into the matter as it may consider appropriate, either confirm or set aside the direction or alter it in such manner as it may think fit.

The fact that an appeal against a direction has been brought in pursuance of sub-section (2) of this section shall not affect the operation of the direction pending the determination of the appeal.
(4) The Vice-Chancellor, before exercising his powers under sub-section (1) above shall cause the nature of the misconduct to be brought to the notice of the student who shall be afforded an opportunity of being heard in person or in writing by a Committee specified by Senate to advise the Vice-Chancellor on disciplinary matters as contained in sub-section (1) of this Law.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor may empower the head of a Hall of Residence or other similar institution of the University to discipline students, other than by way of rustication or expulsion from the University, for any breach of Hall rules:

Provided that any such delegation shall be revocable at will and shall not preclude the Vice-Chancellor from exercising any of these powers himself.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding the restriction or termination of a student’s activities in or attendance at the University other than on the ground of misconduct.

(7) The Senate may make regulations governing the discipline of students and may prescribe in such regulations what acts or omissions on the part of students shall for the purpose of this section constitute “misconduct”

Powers of Board to suspend students, University activities, etc

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 30 or 31, the Board shall have power to suspend the academic and other activities of the University or any part thereof for such period, as the Board may deem appropriate, where in the opinion of the Board good order and discipline in the University has been or is likely to be prejudiced by any act or omission on the part of students and the Board is satisfied that the situation so created has not been or cannot be dealt with effectively or at all by the exercise of any other powers to discipline students conferred by the foregoing provisions.

Provided that the Vice-Chancellor acting on behalf of the Board and on the advice of Senate, may suspend the academic and other activities of the University or any part thereof and such action shall be reported to Board.

Residence of Staff and students

| 33 | (1) The Board may require that any member of the academic staff or the administrative staff shall live within the University precincts in accommodation provided for the purpose. |
| (2) The Vice-Chancellor may require that any student shall live in a Hall of Residence provided for that purpose and under such conditions of residence as may from time to time be prescribed by Statute or Ordinance. |
| (3) The Vice-Chancellor may require that any student shall live outside the University within such radius from the University as shall from time to time be prescribed by Ordinance or Regulation. |

Protection of the University’s estate

| 34 | (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall have responsibility for ensuring that peace and order are maintained within the precincts of the University’s estate and it shall be lawful for the Vice-Chancellor to take such action at all times as he may deem necessary or expedient to maintain peace, protect property and promote and protect the safety and welfare of the students and staff resident within the estate. |
(2) Provision may be made by Ordinance for the purpose of any of the matters mentioned in subsection (1) of this section.

PART VI

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Finance and General Purposes Committee 35

(1) The Board shall appoint a committee of the Board to be known as the Finance and General Purposes Committee which, subject to the directions and supervision of the Board, shall exercise control over the property and expenditure of the University and perform such other functions of the Board as the Board may from time to time delegate to it.

(2) The constitution of the Finance and General Purposes Committee and its functions shall be such as may be prescribed by Statutes.

Bank Accounts 36

The Board shall arrange that all moneys received on account of the University shall be paid into such bank as may be approved by the Board to the credit of one or other of the accounts of the University to be opened with such bank or banks in accordance with the directions of the Board.

Financial Year Accounts, etc 37

(1) The Board shall fix the financial year for the purpose of the accounts of the University.

(2) The Board shall cause proper accounts to be kept in respect of each financial year and proper records in relation to those accounts, and without prejudice to any other requirement as to accounting or control, imposed whether by this Law or otherwise, with respect to the finance of and, endowment and other property held by or for the purposes of the University.

(3) The accounts of the University for the preceding financial year including an annual statement thereof shall be prepared in such form and shall contain such information as the Board may from time to time direct.

Annual Estimates

(1) The estimates of income and expenditure for a financial year shall be presented by the Vice-Chancellor to the Board before the beginning of the financial year.

(2) The annual and supplementary estimates shall be prepared in such form and shall contain such information as the Board may direct.

Gifts, Donations, etc.

39

(1) The Board may on behalf of the University accept by way of grants, gift, testamentary disposition or otherwise, property and moneys in aid of the finances of the University on such conditions as it may approve.

(2) Registers shall be kept of all donations to the University including the names of donors and any special conditions under which any donation may have been given.

(3) All property, money or funds donated for any specific purposes shall be applied and administered in accordance with purposes for which they are donated and shall be accounted for separately.
General fund of The University

40 There shall be a general fund of the University which shall consist of the following:
(a) grants-in-aid;
(b) fees, levies and other charges;
(c) income derived from investments;
(d) income derived from within and outside the country through the continued mobilization drive of the Vice-Chancellor, the Board and the internal revenue organs of the University.
(e) Gifts, legacies, endowments and donations not accepted for a particular purpose;
(f) Income derived from the exercise of any functions conferred or imposed on the University by this Law;
(f) All other moneys belonging to the University from whatsoever source derived.

(2) The general fund shall be applied for the purpose of the University.

Audit

41 (1) The Board shall cause the accounts of the University to be audited by auditors appointed by the Board as soon as may be after the end of each financial year or for any such other period as the Board may require.

(2) The appointment and other matters relative to the auditors, their continuance in office and their functions, as the case may be, shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be prescribed by Statute.

Retirement Benefits, Superannuation, etc.

42 Provision may be made by Statute for the contribution by the University to any superannuation fund or other similar scheme or for the establishments of any other retirement benefits scheme for the benefit of the members of its staff.

PART VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Execution and issue of instruments

43 (1) Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by person not being a body corporate, would not require to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without being sealed on behalf of the University for that purpose.

(2) Any document purporting to be one duly executed or issued under the seal of the University or on behalf of the University shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be a document so executed or issued, as the case may be.

Service of notices, etc.

44 Service upon the University of any notice, order or other document may be effected by delivering the same to the Secretary to Board.

Restriction of suits and execution

45 (1) No suit shall be commenced against the University until at least three months after written notice of intention to commence the same shall have been served on the University by the intending plaintiff of his agent; and such notice shall clearly state the cause of action, the particulars of the claim, the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff and the relief which he claims.
(2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that no suit shall be commenced against an officer or servant of the University, in any case where the University is vicariously liable for any alleged act, neglect or default of the officer or servant in the performance or intended performance of his duties, unless three months at least has elapsed after written notice of intention to commence the same shall have been served on the University by the intending plaintiff or his agent.

(3) In any suit against the University, no execution or attachment or process in the nature thereof shall be issued against the University, but any sums of money which may by the judgment of the court be awarded against the University shall, subject to any directions given by the court where notice of appeal has been given by the University in respect of the said judgment, be paid by the University from its general fund.

If any question arises whether any person has been duly appointed, elected, selected, nominated or co-opted as, or whether any person is entitled to be, a Member of the University or a member of any authority or other body of the University, the question shall be referred to the Board whose decision thereon shall be final.

No resolution or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University established by or in pursuance of any provisions of this Law shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of a vacancy or of vacancies in the membership of such authority or body or by reason of any defect in the appointment, election, selection, nomination or co-option of a member thereof or by reason that any person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

Committees
generality

(1) The Board, the Senate, the Assembly of any College and anybody of persons established by or in pursuance of the provisions of this Law may respectively establish such committee for the purposes of their respective functions as they may think fit.

(2) Unless otherwise expressly provided, any committee may consist partly of persons who are and partly of persons who are not members of the Board, the Senate or the Assembly of any College or such body of persons established by or in pursuance of the provisions of this Law, as the case may be, and any such committee may co-opt any person to participate in its proceedings but such person shall not have a right to vote on any question.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Law and the Statutes, the Board, the Senate, the Assembly of any College and such other body of persons established by or in pursuance of the provisions of this Law may respectively with or without restrictions or conditions as they think fit, delegate any of their powers and duties to any committee.

(4) Except as may otherwise be provided by Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations, the quorum and procedure of any committee shall be such as may be determined by the body establishing the committee.
Resignation and Re-appointments etc. 49

(1) Any person who has been or is deemed to have been appointed, elected, nominated or otherwise selected to any office established by or in pursuance of any provisions of this Law may resign from that office by writing under his hand addressed to the person or authority by whom he was or is deemed to have been appointed, elected, nominated or otherwise selected.

(2) The resignation of any person from any such office shall take effect either on the date when the writing signifying the same is received by the person or authority to whom it is addressed or by any person authorized by that person or authority to receive it or else on some other date specified therein in that behalf as otherwise permitted by law.

(3) Any person who has resigned his office shall, if not disqualified, be entitled to be re-appointed, re-elected, re-nominated or otherwise re-selected to the same.

Members of Authorities and Bodies to declare Personal interests 50

Any member of any authority or other body of the University established by or in pursuance of any Provisions in the Law who has a personal interest in any matter proposed to be considered by that authority or body shall forthwith disclose such interest to the authority or body and shall not vote or otherwise participate in any decision on any question relating to that matter.
Preliminary investigation in respect of land required by the University 51 (1) Whenever it appears to the University that any land in the State is likely to be required for its purposes, the University may, by its servants and agents, together with all necessary workman, enter upon any such land and:

(a) (i) survey and take levels of the land;
(ii) dig or bore under the sub-soil; and
(iii) do all other acts necessary to ascertain whether the land is adapted for such purposes;

(b) clear, set out and mark the boundaries of the land in respect of which it is proposed.

Provided that no such agent, servant or workman shall enter any land (except with the consent of the occupier thereof) unless it had duly satisfied all procedures necessary for the proper purchase of the said land.

Power to make proposals for amendment or Law 52 (1) The Board may at any time make to the National Universities’ Commission proposals for amendments in this Law by a special Resolution passed in that behalf.

(2) A “Special Resolution” shall mean a resolution of which at least twenty-one days’ notice has been given, passed at one meeting of the Board and confirmed at a subsequent meeting held not more than three months after the former:
Nothing in the Interpretation Law shall have effect with reference to the making and operation of Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made in pursuance of this Law, but the powers conferred by this Law to make Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations are, for the Avoidance of doubt, hereby declared to include powers to amend, revoke and replace the same.
