HMD121 Fundamentals of Human Development II (1 Unit)

Department of Languages

Covenant University
1. HMD121
1.1. HMD121 Fundamentals of Human Development II (1 Unit)

This is a follow-up to HMD111, with emphasis on developing the human mind and orientations. The course shall explore the fundamentals of human development from the perspectives of Gender and Humankind. Topics to be treated shall include sexuality awareness development; social skills development; understanding gender, human personality and emotional development, and understanding the nature of man and different worldviews. Other vital topics like learning skills acquisition, essentials of human groups and group dynamics shall also be considered.