MAC318: Investigative and Interpretative Reporting (2 Units)

Department of Mass Communication

Covenant University
1. MAC318

1.1. MAC318: Investigative and Interpretative Reporting (2 Units)

This course trains students to the scientific approach to news gathering and reporting. This course involves the use of and protection of links and sources, analytical presentation of news, news facts and backgrounds for journalism's broad-minded and enlightened audience and readership.