

Title of Article: A comparison of Fuzzy and Deterministic Models for assessing Students' Performance

Author(s): Omolehin J.O., Oyelade O. J. and Oladipupo O. O.

Outlet: Nigerian Journal of Pure and Applied Sciences, Faculty of Science, University of Ilorin, Ilorin, Nigeria

Date:

Abstract: In this paper, methods of Fuzzy and Deterministic models are used for evaluation of Students' performance in some Private and Public Schools. A computer based fuzzy logic approach is identified as a better method of the two for arriving at more practical ways of accurate assessment of students' performance based on this new approach.