1. SOC225
1.1. SOC225 Structure of the Nigerian Society (2 Units)

The structure of the Nigerian society is described in terms of core analytical sociological and anthropological concepts; the course starts with an analysis of the patterns of socio-economic elements of continuity and changes and concludes with the examination of the major social problems of African societies.